Home without a Mother. What is bems without a mother ?... What are all those joys we meet ?

Greets the coming of our feet; The day seems long, the nights seem drear.
And time rolls slowly on : And O! how few are childhood w pleasures, When her geatle care is gone. 1

Things we prize are first to vanish; Hearts we love to pass away : And how soon, e'en in our childhood .. Wa behold her turning gray, Her ore grows dim, her step is slow, Her fore of earth are passed.

And hefore we learn to know her, She hath breathed on earth her last, Other hearts may have their sorrows : Griefs that quickly die away ; But a mother lost in childhood,

We miss her kind and willing hand,

And OI how dreat is life around us,

Her fond and carnest care

What's home without a mother there ?

Curing a Grombler; OR, THREE DAYS AT HOME.

FIRST DAY.

There my dear, I have brought you home three quarts of berries,' said John Paley the blacksmith, as he laid the basket

THIRD DAY.

Almost always an habitual grumbler is indolent person. A man or woman whose mind is always occupied, has no time to be foot. This cedar strip is backed or lined with discontented. But Mrs. Paley's was a mind one of white pine, cut across the grain, and of moral indolence. She permitted her noble faculties to sleep for a time, and discontent stole in while the sentinel was off guard. She had chosen a new course of action, but she had to watch with ceaseless vigilance just to eurb the disposition to complain. Aurora Matters Again.

To the Editor of the New Era. Sin-Far better had "Durante Vita" bee asleep than troubled himself to write such trash to please a Magistrate! Had that functionary know his duty, without being told, and acted accordingly, it would have saved them both from public exposure. Now, sir, "Darante Vita" says-" [would not have troubled you with this letter, but for desire to disabase the public mind in this matter." " I had intended to have treated ' Numb scull's' communication with that contempt it leserves." No doubt he would have done so, if the Magistrate had not applied to him communicate for him. He further says-" The 4th and 6th concessions of Whitehurch and not in Aurora." This statement is fulse! The trate; nor did I state in my communication was present when the affray took place, with a goodly number of others, and could see nothing to warrant a Magistrate in interfering, except to put the parties off the ground, which was done." Now, the fact is, " Durante Vita" must have a great deal of bruss to write such a statement as the above, when the parties complained of wore not on the ground. Again, he says-" when ' Numbsoull' and others spoke to the Magistrate about it, he told them if they would bring a charge, he would attend to it." This statement is also incorrect. When I spoke to the Justice on this matter, he said plainly that it was not his duty. I then told him, it was; and if he did not do it I should expose him. He told me to "do it. ust here-either the Magistrate did not know. his duty, or else, he would not perform it. scarcely see anything in my communication he would not have written such statements and called them facts !

A REMEDY FOR THE WEEVIL -- Several farmers in the township of Breck have successfully preserved their wheat from the ray ages of the midge or weevil. In instances where the following plan has been used the crops remain uninjured, while those adjoining are extremely affected. We give the state mont just us it has been made us, leaving it in the hands of our agricultural friends to determine its fidelity. It is simply this: To harn sulpher so that the wind will carry the fumes through the growing crops. It is stated that the fumes do not injure the wheat, but that they do, almost immediately, destroy the long prevalent throughout the Province, has midge. This method is not an expensive one, and its importance is such as to insure for it a fair trial. - London Herald, 31st.

TEDICINCES containing molasses or liquorice, like the boasted Sarasparillas, require many large bottles to procure the slightest change in health. The Porest Hine is altogether a different article. It contains no syrups to give it consistency, but acquires its excellent flavor, and powerful medicinal prop erties from the vegetable plants of which it composed. The Forest Hine combines the vir-with other valuable plants whose properties are still more effective. Its high concentration renders it one of the most efficient medicines now in see. Somedose shows its good effects on the constitution, and improves the state of the health. The Forest Wine is recommended, in the strongest

DR. G. W. HALSEY: Dear Sir, your Forest Wine and Pills have cuted my wife of a dreadful Nervous disorder, with which she had been affected for many years. Her body was almost wasted away. She was frequently disturbed in her steep by frightful dreams, awa'cening quite exhausted and covered with perspiration, and at times laboring under the delusion that comething dreadful was about to happen to her. By the use of foor bottles of the wine, and a box of Pills, she is now in perfect health. She has regained her flesh and color, and enjoys society as well as
